Studies examining children’s exposure and health effects (cancer, general health effects, cognitive functions)

1. Cancer

Maskarinec (1994) – AM radio transmitters and leukemia
Hocking (1996) – TV towers and brain cancer and leukemia
Dolk (1997a) – Radio and TV transmitters and brain cancer and leukemia
Dolk (1997b) – High power Radio and TV transmitters and brain cancer and leukemia
Cooper (2001) - Radio and TV transmitters and brain cancer and leukemia
Ha (2007) - Radio transmitters brain cancer and leukemia
Merzenich (2008) – Radio and TV transmitters and risk of leukemia

2. General health effects

Koivusilta (2007) – Mobile phone and health
Van den Buick (2007) – Mobile phone use and tiredness
Divan (2008) – Mobile phone exposure and behavioral problems in young children
Soderqvist (2008) – Mobile phone exposure and self-reported health complaints
Henrich (2008) – Mobile phone exposure and self-reported health complaints
Kuhnlein (2009) - Mobile phone exposure and self-reported health complaints
Bell (2009) – Mobile phone use in hospital and mental benefits in young people

3. Cognitive

Lee (2001) - Mobile phones and attention
References:

